We must close our letter, as we are about mounting our horse to proceed to the scene of ac-tion to get particulars on the spot. The pro-slavery men of Marshal's posse will probably enter Lawrence to-morrow. We shall be there and give full particulars.

Our Kansas City Correspondence.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 20, 1856.
Rallying of the Border Ruffians—Robinson Safely Guardet The excitement in regard to the recent free State outrages in Kansas increases hourly. Armed men are passing through Westport almost constantly, on their way to reinferce the United States Marshal's porse at the seat of war. It is supposed that Franklin was attacked, as abreatened by the free State ruffians, last night. Runners have been despatched throughout Missouri to call are have been cerpatched throughout Aissouri to call applies, as fast as man and horse may go, to Franklis and Lecompton. They are marching on foot, mounted on horseback, and crammed into buggles and wagons, and for the most part armed to the testh. Were the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher here now be could realize the result of his preaching and prayers. "Sharp's riles" is their self adopted motto, and a scul seat suddenly before its God no lerger ago than yesterday night, with murder in the beart, and that motto trembiirg upon the lips of the beey it left upon the bloodstained turf of Kanass. It is too lake to moralize, too late to restrain, the storm which has so long been gathering is about to burst. Thanks to our imbedie administration—thanks to a fanatical elergy; thanks to a studied misrepresentation. Blood must and has already been shed. May God comfort the widow and the fatherless, and in his intuitie mercy shield those whose protectors will be taken away.

Robinson passed through Westport this afternoon, sinder charge of a strong guard, commanded by Deputy United States Marshal Donaldoon. He is en voute for Lecompton. We saw him for a moment in his room at the Harris House, in Westport; he complimented us upon having been transformed into quite a border ruffish in our appearance; spoke in complimentary terms of the courtery with which he had had occur treated by his captors, and assured us that he was in excellent health and spirits.

Our Westport Correspondence.

WESTPORT, Mo., May 21, 1856. Governor, or Doctor Robinson (as your readers may puefer to call him) is under guard in the Harris House, ust opposite the building in which we are writing. We has retained Col. William H. Russell, of Fayette county, My., at present a resident of Case county, Mo., as his nsel. Dr. Robinson will be well treated on the route, and safely delivered to the proper authorities at Lecomp-sen, to be fairly tried, and, if guilty, fairly punished But it would be affectation to deny that there is a deep and earnest feeling of dislike and indignation at the poal course which he has pursued in Kansas pervading the entire pro-siavery community. Nor is Robinson's manner, we fancy, greatly calculated to remove this un avorable impression. He will, we presume, leave here to-day, under the charge of Col. W. T. Preston and Major to-day, under the charge of Col. W. T. Preston and Major W. F. Donaldson. Brown, of free State editorship notoriety, has reached his place of confinement in Lecompten, much, we should suppose, to his joy. The cordon of pro-slavery troops—or, to call things by their right names, the United States Marshal's posse—are drawing about Lawrence, and in a few days' time we shall possibly find that celebrated place quietly surrendered into the hands of law and order pro-slavery men, the Beecher rille anti-Bible brigade to the contrary notwithstanding—and then we should delike to own an interest, even upon the most advantageous terms, either in Free State Enigrant Aid Sonely stock or the printing presses of Lawrence—always supposing that the good whicf these establishments went with the concern. Our next letter, if nothing happens to ma in the meanwhile, will probably be dated from Franklis—or it is just possible, as we shall accompany the posse who guard Robieson, Lawrence, for whose beleagueeed walls all the world in these diggins is at present or words.

The following is copied from the original letter written to Col. Boone, the leading man of this section of Missouri, by a gentlemsn of high respectability—and, moreover, a man of upwards of seventy-tive years of age. It may be regarded as a fair exponent of the universal sentiment which pervades the pro-tisyery mind of the South and West:—

West:

LOCUST GROVE, MO., 20th May, 1856.

COLONEL H. G. BOONE—DEAR SIR—Mr. Fountain Waller same to my bouse to day about ten o'clock, to let me have the Rews from the Territory, and give me the communication he received from you to the citizans of Liberty and the county of Clay. If the pro-slavery men will not so: we must surrender Kansas Territory to the aboutton party. I am now, and was when at your house, salsfied that the die will be cast in a few days whether Kansas shall be free soil or pro-slavery. In yaim do men look to Washington city for safety, (Southerners I mean.) We must act, think, and decide for ourselves in this matter. We succeed now or never. Truly you s.

WESTORY, Mo., May 21—5 P. M.

A runner is just in from the pro-slavery camp at Franklin; all is quiet. Warlike runners are affect, but want foundation. The runner says that when the body of the free State man shot by Lt. Cosgrove was brough into the town of Lawrence, the United States Deputy Marshal, Judge Fain, was in that town, upon which several of the good people of that law abiding place raised the ery of "Hang him! hang him!" which motion was, however, overruled in consideration of his office. The Santa Fe mail is said to be close at hand. We ourself are about to quit this scene of strife to seek a greater degree of quiet and security among the Indians of the Rocky Mountains—in p'ain terms, we are, Providence permitting, off for Santa Fe and San Fernando del Taos, on Satardard Parkets. turday. But we shall visit the "seat of war of preface to our trip. WESTPORT, Mo., May 21-8 P. M.

We have just learned from Major Davis, who arrived by the Santa Fe mail, that they heard what seemed to be the sound of artillery in the direction of Lawrence this morning. Another report tells us that the "border ruffians," or United States Marshal's posse, 700 strong, were marching upon the town this morning. Yet another rumarching upon the town this morning. Yet another rumor declares that Col. Summer in person, with his whole regiment, the lat Cavairy, is there, and that the United States troops have had a cellision with either the free State or pro-slavery men, which has not transpired. Remember, we give you these things for what they are—rumors; but still they come in such a shape as renders it proper to communicate them. It possible, Gov. Robinson will be started for Lecompton to night; he will in that case go up under a guard of only six or eight men.

We should have been upon the spot in person ere this had it have been possible to procure a conveyance. We kepe to get off to night—if not, at daylight to-morrow.

LEAVENWORII, Kaneas, May 22, 1856.

On Wednesday, May 21, the posse that had assembled at Lecompton, in accordance with the United States Marshal's proclamation, made their appearance on the heights that overlook the town or Lawrence about sunvise. The first company were mounted on horses, and numbered from 87 to 109. They were reinforced dutil the whole amounted to about 400. They took possession of the roads leading to and from Lawrence, so that the citizens in town could not get any communication with those in the country, and even travellers that wished to pursue their journey, were prohibited from leaving. They marshalled their command in battle array, displaying flags at the same time of various kinds, and colors. One I noticed in particular was red and white, with a lone star on the corner; others, black and white, with a lone star on the corner; others, black and white, green and white, and most all colors and kinds, except the national flag of stars and stripes.

During the forenoonlythe Committee of Pupilic Safety appointed by the citizens of Lawrence, addressed a note to the Marshal, assuring him that the citizens would make no resistance to the serving of any writ, and at the same time, as citizens of the United States Marshal) took no notice of the same. About 11 A. M. the Deputy Marshal, with a posse of nine or ton, made his appearance in the sweets, and then summoned four of our citizens to assist in making arrests. They went with him and his posse, and made two arrests of our fellow townsmen, G. W. Detzlen and G. W. Smith. The posse then took dinner at the Free State Hotel.

made two arrests of our fellow townsmen, G. W. Betzlen and G. W. Smith. The posse then took dinner at the Free State Hotel.

After dinner the two prisoners were conveyed out of town, and sheriff Jones made his appearance with a party of eighteen armed men. He did not attempt to make any arrests, but in an insulining manner demanded the arms, both private and public, and said that he would give them five minutes to accede to the demand. If they refused to comply he would storm the town. The public arms were given up, and in half an hour after he made the demand he and his whole posse, to the number of three hundred and upwards, were in the streets, with two pleces of artiliery, yelling like savages. They commenced their work of destruction immediately, by throwing the two printing presses and type in the river. This being done they began to cannonade the hotel and fire by platoons at the same time at the windows; in the meanwhile the women and children fleeling in every direction, the Sheriff having retused any time to remove them or property to a place of safety, as he said they implied have done it before had they wanted to do so. As I was learing town, there were several who wanted to know where they could find a place of safety, but I could afford them no consolation. I being mounted, succeeded in getting away, after a long chasse. I left the vidinity about 8 P.

M. When I was fifteen miles distant I could see the fiames of what appeared to be a large fire in the direction of Lawrence, and have no doubt but that the town is in ashes and many of its inhabitants butchered.

LATEST FROM KANSAS—LAWRENCE DESTROYED!

LEXINOTON, Mo., May 22, 1866, )

Six o'clock, evening.

Six o'clock, evening.

We are indebted to the officers of the Morning Star, down this evening from Leavenworth, for the following important news:—

Lawrence City was destroyed on Wednesday. The United States Marshal, with 500 to 700 men, marched into Lawrence, and made the arrest of all he had write for. The Marshal then turned the command over to Sheriff Jones, who had arrests to make, when the people of Lawrence resisted Sheriff Jones, and fired on his men, when Jones opened his artiflery on the Free State Hotel. The Each then charged, and set the hotel on five, Cantriptal the printing press, and set fire to the effice, which was in the middle of the building. About 200 mea were in Lawrence. When the messenger left Lawrence the artility was still firing and the fire still apreading. But few lives were lost.

The above is entirely testimony of Hutchinson and Raddliff, free State men.

The Lieutenant Governor of Mexico, W. Davis, arrived from State Fe at Westport in nineteen days travel. Passed cown on the swift steamer Morning Star. Left St. Joseph Widnesday, May 21, at 10 P. M.; laid on Smith's Bar about four hours, until 4% P. M.; met Conwers above latan; took in about 411 bales hemp and three barrels lard at Weston.

To the politriess of Capt. Eastin, editor of the Kanass Herald, we are obliged for the following corroborative statement:—

statement:—
Lawrence was destroyed on Wednesday evening. The artillery occard on the Free State Hotel. The men then charged upon the town, set fire to the hotel, destroyed the printing presses, and set fire to the offices which were in the midst of the buildings. But 200 men were in Lawrence. Jones headed our command. When the messenger left Lawrence the artillery was firing, and the fire spreading. But few lives lost.

From a passenger on the Morning Stat—Mr. Dorris, of Westen—we learn that it was the intention of Jones to proceed from Lawrence to Topeks, which would also be destroyed.

As far as we can learn the abolitionists failed in their courage, and made but little resistance.

Mr. Shannon said there was no use complaining; that the Territory was under martial law, and a civil war inethe Territory was under that as aw, but Mr. Newill, who was an old neighbor, would'at let him off.

He desires to examine the country and select a piace well provided with timber he is accompanied by his son John Newill, Joseph Fitzalm more, his brother-in-law, and a Dr. Gamble. They are newly identified with the present troubles in this ferritory. Now therefore, I have to request all persons to permit the said Jesse Bewill and his crimrades to pass and repass throughout the Territory without molestation.

Mr. Edridge, lesses of the Free State Hotel, went up to Lecompton on Saturday, and tried to induce him to put a step to the cutrages to which the people of Lawrence are cally subjected. Mr. Eldridge, on behalf of the "Safety Valve," offered to deliver all arms up to the United States soddiers, if Mr. Shannon would station a company of them in Lawrence to protect it from the mob.

Mr. Shannon retured to give an immediate answer to this offer. On the morning following he said to Mr. Eldridge that he believed a civil war inevitable; that the only terms the South Carolinans would consent to were—the surrender of all arms in Lawrence, and the destruction of the printing offices and other objectionable buildings.

tion of the printing offices and other objectionance unitaries.

In justice to the safety valve, it is proper to add that these terms offered by Mr. Eldridge had been put by Mr. Shannon in a conference with a previous deputation. When that deputation returned and presented the Governor's terms, the committee held a meeting, discussed and accepted them. Shannon now declined to ratify the terms. No. The squatters must be "crushed" and "conquered" and "subdued;" and the tools of the Figree administration must find a pretext to begin the subjection.

quered" and "subdued;" and the tools of the Pierce administration must find a pretext to begin the subjection.

Mr. Stnart, a young man, the only son of an eminent lawyer of New York, was nurdered on the highway by a band of the law and order posse, yesterday forenoon, when riding toward Lawrence. He was one of the officers of the Topeka House of Representatives.

Another Northern squatter, named Jones, formerly from Illinois, was shot dead near Blanton's bridge, by a party of maranders from the camp near Franklin.

A Delaware Indian was shot, and supposed to be mortally wounder, near Sarockie's, by another law and order detail; rumor has it that they were part of the Platte company who started from Delaware on Sunday.

Another equatter, who lives a new miles up the Kaw from Lawrence, was shot on his claim on Monday night.

All these cases are well authenticated; but I have not yet received the details of each outrage. I wil send you sificative as soon as I meet eye witnesses of these "consitutional" murders.

A FEW PACTS.

Fourteen men have been shot at within the last nine days—irrespective of the two murdered and two fatally wounded men afready mentioned—in the vicinity of Lawrence, by parties of Governor Shannon's "legally organized posse." A list of their names is preserved, and will be produced at the proper time.

Horses, revolvers, rifles, shot guns, knives and overpowered on the highway. The chivalry of South Carolina here have a talent that way.

Yesterday, Monday morning, a party came upon a man ploughing in a field, two miles northwest of Lawrence, took infrae cxen from him, drove them off to their asmp, and killed them for the use of the "legally organized" militia.
